Their bureau chief inquired earlier this week Monica said, earlier, they should remain on our list. Since they're pressing, let me know whether we can grant an interview either in DC or, say, to that network's affiliates in Colorado. I understand either would be tough.

Hi Robert,

Peter Zampa here from Gray DC – I was hoping to set up an interview for this story sometime early next week. We really want to focus on the repercussions of spillage in waterways and how the EPA is held accountable.

Please let me know if I can speak with you or someone soon!

Thanks,

Peter
